B. The Conspiracy and Its Objects

From on or about January 1, 2011, to on or about June 10, 2014, in the Eastern District of Tennessee and elsewhere, the defendants,

BRIAN C. ROSE, ROBERT MCGREGOR, DALLAS MCRAE,
HUGH SACKETT, JAMES ROBINSON, BRENT LOVEALL, JASON SMITH,
RAY SPEARS, JENIFER KEY, THOMAS BERRY,
JOHNNY D. PHILLIPS, AND DAVID ROSE

did conspire to commit mail fraud and wire fraud, having devised or intending to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud and to obtain money or property by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, or promises.

14. From about January 1, 2011 until on or about June 10, 2014, in the Eastern District of Tennessee and elsewhere, the defendants, BRIAN C. ROSE, ROBERT MCGREGOR, DALLAS MCRAE, HUGH SACKETT, JAMES ROBINSON, BRENT LOVEALL, JASON SMITH, RAY SPEARS, JENIFER KEY, THOMAS BERRY, JOHNNY D. PHILLIPS, AND DAVID ROSE obtained money and property from investors in New Century Coal by means of materially false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, as more particularly set forth herein.

Operation of the Investment Scheme

15. NEW CENTURY COAL marketed itself as an Issuer/Sponsor of Partnerships to individual investors for the purpose of placing investors in limited liability partnerships in distinct coal mine operations. NEW CENTURY COAL also marketed itself as the Partnership Mine Operator of each distinct coal mine. Each offering was limited to a small number of shares for a high investment, assigned to a distinct coal mine. For example, Steel Hollow Mine, LLP was offered in six units costing $250,000 each for a total ownership investment of $1.5 million.

16. As part of the scheme, NEW CENTURY COAL prepared and distributed via United States mail and private interstate carrier documents which included Private Placement Memoranda (purporting to disclose risks and hazards to potential investors), Investor Suitability Questionnaires (purporting to gauge investors' suitability for investment in the coal mines), a combined Turnkey Mining Development Agreement and Mine Operating Contract (purporting to provide assurance to the investor that s/he has invested in a coal mine which will soon produce coal), and a Subscription Agreement (purporting to give the investor an ownership interest in a viable coal mine and other valuable rights in the operation of the mine and oversight of the investment).

17. Defendant ROSE established an office for NEW CENTURY COAL at 1009 Lark Street in Johnson City, Tennessee. He staffed the scheme with individuals who targeted potential investor victims, made false and fraudulent representations to potential and existing investors, solicited sales of shares in New Century Coal and its various coal mines, and received funds exceeding $15 million from more than 160 investors who reside in multiple locations in the United States. Co-defendants ROBERT MCGREGOR, DALLAS MCRAE, HUGH SACKETT, JAMES ROBINSON, BRENT LOVEALL, JASON SMITH, RAY SPEARS, JENIFER KEY, JOHNNY D. PHILLIPS, and DAVID ROSE were some of the individuals that ROSE selected to staff and operate NEW CENTURY COAL and who conspired with ROSE to commit wire fraud and mail fraud.

18. NEW CENTURY COAL employed "fronters" who identified high income/high net worth individuals from lists provided by brokers, publicly available financial information, and from lists of victims of prior fraudulent financial schemes. Fronters called potential investors by telephone and explained that "Blue Gem Coal" is a high BTU (British Thermal Unit), low sulphur and low ash coal which naturally occurs in two areas in North America, including certain geographic areas in Kentucky and Tennessee. New Century Coal frontiers falsely told potential investors that New Century Coal was a successful coal company which is the largest "Blue Gem Coal" company in the United States. Fronters falsely told investors that New Century Coal would start mining operations in coal mines immediately after raising sufficient capital, expected in less than a year. Fronters falsely told investors the coal mines were "turnkey" operations, meaning they are ready to begin exploration and production of coal. Fronters falsely and fraudulently told investors they would receive quarterly payments amounting to 6% of their investment until New Century Coal began mining operations and they will receive 100% or better return on their investment in the first year of mining.

19. NEW CENTURY COAL employed "closers" who contacted interested investors via telephone after contact by the fronters. The closers provided additional false and fraudulent information about the mining operation, provided false and fraudulent answers to investor questions, and sent the investors the subscription documents needed to complete the investment via FEDEX, a commercial carrier in interstate commerce. The closers assisted the investors with completion of the documents and facilitated the transmission of investor funds to NEW CENTURY COAL at its office located at 1009 Lark Street in Johnson City, Tennessee. Most investor funds were sent to NEW CENTURY COAL by prepaid FEDEX envelope provided by NEW CENTURY COAL to the investor during the subscription agreement process.

False and Fraudulent Representations to Investors

20. Defendants BRIAN C. ROSE, ROBERT MCGREGOR, DALLAS MCRAE, HUGH SACKETT, JAMES ROBINSON, BRENT LOVEALL, JASON SMITH,

RAY SPEARS, THOMAS BERRY, AND JOHNNY D. PHILLIPS fraudulently obtained money from investors by falsely representing, among other things, that:

(a) JOHN HANKINS (an alias used by BRIAN C. ROSE), HUGH SACKETT, DALLAS MCRAE, and others involved in NEW CENTURY COAL had successfully produced coal and returned profits to investors in coal mine investments;

(b) NEW CENTURY COAL, its coal mine partners, and the defendants would devote most or all of the investment to producing coal;

(c) NEW CENTURY COAL was a successful mining company which was the largest producer of "Blue Gem" coal in the United States;

(d) NEW CENTURY COAL would pay each investor 6% return on investment until the coal mine began operation and would pay each investor 100% or better return on investment in the first year of mining;

(e) NEW CENTURY COAL would mail operating and production reports to the investors at least quarterly;

(f) NEW CENTURY COAL would provide investors timely and full information regarding the coal mining venture;

(g) NEW CENTURY COAL would maintain separate capital accounts for each investor;

(h) NEW CENTURY COAL would aggressively market produced coal and investors would receive a royalty of $4 per net ton of coal produced in addition to the return on capital from the investment.

21. The defendants falsely and fraudulently created ghost vendor companies with valid bank accounts to create the illusion that NEW CENTURY COAL actually explored, developed, and mined coal and provided documents purportedly issued by the ghost vendor companies to investors.

22. The defendants falsely and fraudulently fabricated documents which falsely reported costs and expenses incurred in the exploration, development, and mining of coal and provided those documents to new and existing investors.

23. When no coal was produced and no funds were paid to investors, the defendants falsely fabricated rationales for the non-production and persuaded investors to swap their ownership interests for what the defendants represented was a different, more promising mine managed by NEW CENTURY COAL with the same or similar investment terms. The defendants falsely and fraudulently led such investors to believe that they received a valuable interest in a substitute coal mine which was expected to begin production in less than one year.

24. In some instances, potential investors requested additional information regarding the investment including, for example, financial statements, lists of mining expenses, proof of existence of the coal mines, and documentation of the existence of coal. In these instances, the defendants provided false and fraudulent information to the investor.

Diversion of Investor Funds

25. When the investor-signed subscription documents and investor funds were received by NEW CENTURY COAL, the closers sent the subscription documents to JENIFER KEY at her home in Louisville, Kentucky. KEY was financial officer for NEW CENTURY COAL and other entities controlled and owned by BRIAN C. ROSE and for funds controlled or owned by BRIAN C. ROSE. KEY completed the subscription documents, created Certificates of Ownership in NEW CENTURY COAL and the various coal mines, and sent copies of documents to the investors via FEDEX and United States mails. KEY maintained investor files at her residence in Louisville, Kentucky.

26. When the investor funds were received by NEW CENTURY COAL, the funds were deposited in one of many bank accounts controlled by BRIAN C. ROSE. ROSE paid a commission amounting to 20% of the investment to the closer and directed JENIFER KEY and others regarding the distribution of the remaining investor funds.

27. BRIAN C. ROSE, acting through his co-defendants and others, diverted funds received from NEW CENTURY COAL investors to multiple entities which were represented to investors as legitimate vendors or suppliers to NEW CENTURY COAL. These entities included, but are not limited to, VOLT RESOURCES, which was controlled by BRIAN C. ROSE, JENIFER KEY, and THOMAS BERRY; RED BIRD BUSINESS, which was controlled by BRENT LOVEALL; BRIAN ROSE MOTOR SPORTS, which was controlled by BRIAN C. ROSE and JENIFER KEY; NAV VET COAL, which was controlled by BRIAN C. ROSE and JENNIFER KEY; PREMIER MINING MACHINERY, which was controlled by JENNIFER KEY and WILLIAM MORRIS to benefit BRIAN C. ROSE; ENERGY GROUP FUNDS, which was controlled by HUGH SACKETT; APPALACHIAN FOSSIL FUELS, which was controlled by RAY SPEARS; APPALACHIAN ENERGY GROUP, which was controlled by JENIFER KEY, ROBERT MCGREGOR, and BRIAN C. ROSE; UNLIMITED EQUINE and BLUEBIRD TRUST, which was controlled by THOMAS BERRY AND BRIAN C. ROSE; and KENTUCKY INDUSTRIAL SERVICES, BLACKSTONE, AND BLACK DIAMOND PROCESS, which was controlled by JOHNNY D. PHILLIPS. Investor funds which were deposited into these accounts were used for expenses unrelated to the exploration, development, or production of coal, including lavish gambling trips to Las Vegas, acquisition of thoroughbred horses and the maintenance and training of such horses, the acquisition of racing cars, and the defendants' normal living expenses. A very small fraction of investor funds were devoted to expenses related to the exploration, development, or production of coal. The defendants often used the corporate entities interchangeably and observed few corporate formalities.

28. BRIAN C. ROSE and JENNIFER KEY established multiple bank accounts at different financial institutions and manipulated funds among the bank accounts in order to further the conspiracy and to conceal and disguise the nature, location, source, ownership, and control of the money obtained through their fraudulent activities. They diverted investor funds from an initial receiving account (usually in the name of NEW CENTURY COAL or a specific coal mine) to bank accounts controlled by the defendants, BRIAN C. ROSE, ROBERT MCGREGOR, DALLAS MCRAE, HUGH SACKETT, JAMES ROBINSON, BRENT LOVEALL, JASON SMITH, RAY SPEARS, JENNIFER KEY, THOMAS BERRY, AND JOHNNY D. PHILLIPS.

29. The defendants falsely and fraudulently moved investor funds to bank accounts in the name of ghost vendor companies and diverted those funds to the personal benefit and use of BRIAN C. ROSE aka JOHN HANKINS.

30. The defendants, BRIAN C. ROSE, ROBERT MCGREGOR, DALLAS MCRAE, HUGH SACKETT, JAMES ROBINSON, BRENT LOVEALL, JASON SMITH, RAY SPEARS, JENNIFER KEY, THOMAS BERRY, AND JOHNNY D. PHILLIPS did not place investors' money into legitimate coal mining ventures or expenses, but instead diverted the investors' funds for:

(a) The personal use and benefit of the defendants, BRIAN C. ROSE, ROBERT MCGREGOR, DALLAS MCRAE, HUGH SACKETT, JAMES ROBINSON, BRENT

LOVEALL, JASON SMITH, RAY SPEARS, JENNIFER KEY; THOMAS BERRY, JOHNNY D. PHILLIPS, AND DAVID ROSE

(b) Payments to other associates of BRIAN C. ROSE and fraudulent investment schemes; and

- (c) Monthly “return” and “profit” payments to earlier investors in order to
- (i) lull the investors into a false sense of security about their investment,
 - (ii) encourage the investors to make additional future investments, and
 - (iii) use earlier investors to recruit additional investors and prevent adverse information about the investments from prematurely ending the scheme.

C. Overt Acts in Furtherance of the Conspiracy

In furtherance of the conspiracy and to effect the objects of the conspiracy, the defendants BRIAN C. ROSE, ROBERT MCGREGOR, DALLAS MCRAE, HUGH SACKETT, JAMES ROBINSON, BRENT LOVEALL, JASON SMITH, RAY SPEARS, JENNIFER KEY, THOMAS BERRY, JOHNNY D. PHILLIPS, AND DAVID ROSE committed or caused to be committed the following overt acts, among others, in the Eastern District of Tennessee and elsewhere.

31. In furtherance of the conspiracy and scheme, defendant ROSE created and operated a fraudulent investor scheme known as EARTH ENERGY EXPLORATION in the Commonwealth of Kentucky and the State of Indiana prior to the year 2011. After law enforcement authorities in those states began investigating EARTH ENERGY EXPLORATION, ROSE moved to Johnson City, Tennessee during 2011 in order to start a new fraudulent investor scheme known as NEW CENTURY COAL and to avoid detection by law enforcement authorities.

32. In furtherance of the conspiracy and scheme, BRIAN C. ROSE caused NEW CENTURY COAL to become a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Nevada in April 2011.

33. In furtherance of the conspiracy and scheme, BRIAN C. ROSE organized and directed the scheme to defraud, to include directing his co-defendants as follows:

h. JENNIFER KEY acted as ROSE's financial controller and manager, with access and control over dozens of bank accounts related to NEW CENTURY COAL and BRIAN C. ROSE.

i. THOMAS BERRY interacted with investors of NEW CENTURY COAL, structured financial transactions to conceal BRIAN ROSE's diversion of investor funds, controlled ghost vendor bank accounts titled in the names of VOLT RESOURCES, UNLIMITED EQUINE, AND BLUEBIRD TRUST, and concealed BRIAN ROSE's ownership of assets purchased with the proceeds of the fraudulent scheme.

j. JOHNNY D. PHILLIPS interacted with NEW CENTURY COAL investors, pretending to be a legitimate purchaser of coal interested in coal output, controlled ghost vendor bank accounts titled in the names of KENTUCKY INDUSTRIAL SERVICES, BLACKSTONE, AND BLACK DIAMOND PROCESSING, and structured financial transactions to conceal BRIAN ROSE's diversion of investor funds.

k. DAVID ROSE drafted materially false documents which were provided to potential and actual NEW CENTURY COAL investors (including a Private Placement Memorandum and Executive Summary for Pleasant Mountain Mine), drafted a sham lease agreement between NEW CENTURY COAL and ghost vendor PREMIER MINING MACHINERY, created website and marketing materials for the successor scheme known as BLUE GEM GROUP, and provided advice to his co-defendants regarding the concealment of the fraud from law enforcement authorities including the Securities and Exchange Commission Enforcement Division.

34. In furtherance of the conspiracy and scheme, from on or about January 1, 2011 through June 10, 2014, the defendants provided investors a detailed technical and financial explanation of the costs associated with the exploration, development and production of coal which falsely led investors to believe that such acts occurred and such costs were incurred when very few such acts occurred.

35. In furtherance of the conspiracy and scheme, from on or about January 1, 2011 through June 10, 2014, the defendants falsely and fraudulently provided investors federal income tax advice which lulled investors to believe that the return on investment was so high that the investor needed to engage in extensive tax planning in order to avoid a large federal income tax liability.

In furtherance of the conspiracy and scheme, from on or about January 1, 2011 through June 10, 2014, the defendants falsely and fraudulently represented to investors that NEW CENTURY COAL would pay extensive costs associated with the exploration, development, and production of coal and retained a lien against all the investor's share of proceeds to recoup these costs.

37. In furtherance of the conspiracy and scheme, from on or about January 1, 2011 through June 10, 2014, the defendants falsely and fraudulently represented that NEW CENTURY COAL would sell coal on behalf of the Unit Holder/Investor on a competitive basis to third parties.

38. In furtherance of the conspiracy and scheme, from on or about January 1, 2011 through June 10, 2014, the defendants falsely and fraudulently represented that NEW CENTURY COAL would maintain accurate records relating to all phases of the mining operation and make them available to the Unit Holder/Investor upon thirty days notice by the investor.

41. In furtherance of the conspiracy and scheme, from on or about January 1, 2011 through June 10, 2014, the defendants falsely and fraudulently represented that NEW CENTURY COAL "...is accountable to the Unit Holders/Investors as a fiduciary and consequently must exercise reasonable good faith and integrity in the handling of partnership affairs."

42. In furtherance of the conspiracy and scheme, from on or about January 1, 2011 through June 10, 2014, the defendants falsely and fraudulently represented that NEW CENTURY COAL would provide Unit Holders/Investors "timely and full information concerning matters affecting the business of the partnership..."

43. In furtherance of the conspiracy and scheme, from on or about January 1, 2011 through June 10, 2014, the defendants falsely and fraudulently represented that "Each Unit Holder/Investor may inspect the books and records of the partnership at any time during normal business hours upon thirty (30) days' written notice."

44. In furtherance of the conspiracy and scheme, from on or about January 1, 2011 through June 10, 2014, the defendants falsely and fraudulently represented NEW CENTURY COAL would provide each Unit Holder/Investor "...a copy of a statement of income or loss for the partnership and another statement showing the amounts allocated to or against such Unit Holder."

45. In furtherance of the conspiracy and scheme, from on or about January 1, 2011 through June 10, 2014, the defendants included a lengthy glossary of mining terms in the subscription documents, falsely and fraudulently lulling the investor to believe that NEW CENTURY COAL was proficient in the coal industry and to believe that NEW CENTURY COAL intended to actively engage in the exploration, development and mining of coal.

46. In furtherance of the conspiracy and scheme, from on or about January 1, 2011 through June 10, 2014, the defendants falsely and fraudulently promised Unit Holders/Investors that NEW CENTURY COAL would maintain separate capital accounts for each Unit Holder/Investor.
